

He was a volunteer for the Friends of the Library for many years working in the Friends Book Store. There his volunteer duties included working the Friends Book Store desk, selling books, and assisting customers.

All of us long time Florence Exchange Club members will best remember this years recipient as the club's Secretary- Treasurer for a period of ten years back in the 1980s and 1990s. Those who served as officers along side him remember how well he reminded them of important dates and responsibilities to accomplish certain club goals.

Consequently someone was always sewing a patch on our banner and the club nearly always won the Distinguished Service Award. He received the award as the Best Club Secretary for the Alabama District year after year. This years recipient was well informed about the programs and procedures of the Alabama District Exchange Club and regularly attended District training meetings and the Annual Conventions of the District.

He served as District Director for the Exchange Club during the years 1989 thru 1993 and as Ken Lundberg, Immediate Past President of the Alabama District Exchange Clubs said, "was always there when he was needed." As District Director he met with the Colbert County Club as well as the Florence Club on a regular basis and also attended the quarterly district meeting to report on the progress of each club. His reports often included helpful as well as positive comments about the clubs in his district.

This years recipient of the Book of Golden Deeds is truly an inspiration to others with his spirit of unselfish voluntary service to his fellow man and to his community. As you have all guessed by now this years recipient of the Florence Exchange Club's Book of Golden Deeds is our very own Dr. Henrik J. Aune.
